IDUTYWA – Construction has started on a crche in Idutywa in the Eastern Cape, in honour of a murdered 19-year-old.

The Samarpan Foundation, a charity, is using an unusual building technique to make a young woman's dream of a two-storey crche in a remote area a reality.

They're using plastic bottles as a building material.

Every day Zine Zito drops her three-year-old son off at the Matolweni Crche.

She is unemployed and relies on this one-roomed nursery school to look after her child.

It frees her up to eke out a living.
